

Carmen and Lola with the Miami Recent Cinema from Spain

This entry was posted on November 19, 2015 by monica.

Miami Recent Cinema from Spain Film Festival is back and we love it. This year, Carmen and Lola is one of their proud supporting sponsors. Tonight, Nov. 19th is the grand opening night in the beautiful Olympia Theater. Red carpet at 6.30 and movie at 7: "Wednesdays don't exist", a romantic comedy musical with Eduardo Noriega, William Miller, Inma Cuesta, María León and more well-known faces from Spanish cinema.

more

As supporting sponsors, we'll be offering some good Spanish cheese and ham after the screening. If you are in Miami, we'd love to see you here! Let your Spanish side come out and buy your ticket now.

This is the 5th edition of this Festival here in Miami, and it's always a gran fiesta for the Spanish community. Expats, celebrities, teachers... all are here. Check the program and enjoy it!

THURSDAY NOV. 19th: 7 "Wednesdays don't exist"

FRIDAY NOV. 20th: 6.45 "Requirements to be a normal person" / 9.45 "Magical girl"

SATURDAY NOV. 21st: 6.45 "Talk!" / 9.45 "Breathless time"

SUNDAY NOV. 22nd: 6.45 "The wild, the child & the miracle" short movie followed by "Off course!"

Recent Cinema
from
Spain

5TH ANNUAL FILM SERIES. MIAMI
NOVEMBER 19-22 2015

OLYMPIA THEATER

📍 174 E. Flagler Street. Miami, Florida

Let your Spanish side out !

Via RCFS