

Recent Cinema from Spain

November 17th - 20th

THE ANNUAL FILM SERIES "RECENT CINEMA FROM SPAIN" WILL BRING OUTSTANDING SPANISH MOVIES TO MIAMI.

Since 2010, Recent Cinema From Spain brings the best of Spanish Film to Miami audiences. The annual film series evokes inspiration with outstanding movies from Spain and through film, celebrates Spanish culture & talent.

The 6th edition of Recent Cinema From Spain will take place from November 17 - 20, 2016 at the historic Olympia Theater in Downtown Miami and is presented by EGEDA (Spanish Audiovisual Producers' Rights Management Association) and the Olympia Theater with the special collaboration of ICAA.

Recent Cinema from Spain is excited to bring among the 6 movies that will be shown in November 3 US Premieres and 2 Miami Premieres, as well as talented filmmakers and Spanish Stars, such as Andreu Buenafuente to Miami. The 2016 film series will open on Nov 17th with a Red Carpet Gala and screening of NIGHT TALES, a feel-good comedy with an outstanding ensemble cast set in present-day Barcelona, directed by Manuela Burló Moreno. We look forward to once again welcoming Spanish, American and International stars on the red carpet, including filmmaker Marina Seresesky (THE OPEN DOOR) and actor Andreu Buenafuente (PARTY TOWN). Following the screening will be a gala-reception at the Olympia Theater with the talent and filmmakers in attendance. We will send a tip sheet with all confirmed guests two days prior to the event.
